

Welcome and Scene Setting

2nd W3C WoT Workshop, Munich, Germany, 4/5 June 2019

Remember?

Timeline and Expectations

Statistics

	OpenDay	Workshop Day 1 / 2
Participants	140	61
Organizations	60	46
New Comers	25	14

Logistics

- We should have all session presentations before the session starts
 - Send your presentation to Sebastian.Kaebisch@siemens.com and Michael.Lagally@oracle.com
- Length of your talks:
 - Lightning talk: 10 minutes, incl. Q&A
 - Full talk: 30 minutes, incl. Q&A
- Wifi access
 - SSID: SWSGUEST01
 - <http://3wi.fi>
 - Click 'Visitor registration'
 - Enter your name, mobile number, and Sebastian.Kaebisch@siemens.com as Siemens contact

Agenda Tuesday, June 4th

	Session	Moderator
Morning 1	Welcome and setting the Scene	Workshop Chairs Kazuyuki Ashimura (W3C)
	Greetings from W3C CEO	Dr. Jeff Jaffe
	Use Cases / Deployment	Michael Lagally (Oracle)
Coffee Break
Morning 2	Tooling / Implementations	Michael Lagally (Oracle)
Lunch

<Agenda Tuesday, June 4th>

	Session	Moderator
Afternoon 1	Tooling and Implementation	Sebastian Käbisch (Siemens)
Coffee Break
Afternoon 2	Security and Privacy	Michael McCool (Intel)
	Wrapup	Michael Lagally (Oracle) + Sebastian Käbisch (Siemens)

<Agenda Wednesday, June 5th>

	Session	Moderator
	Keynote: The Singapore Experience Chinn Hwa Lim Government Technology Agency Singapore
Morning 1	Extensions for WoT Standardisation, Semantics, Linked Data	Sebastian Käbisch (Siemens)
Coffee Break
Morning 2	Extensions for WoT Standardisation, Semantics, Linked Data	Sebastian Käbisch (Siemens)
Lunch

<Agenda Wednesday, June 5th>

	Session	Moderator
Afternoon 1	Future Work, Collaboration with other SDOs	Michael Lagally (Oracle)
Coffee Break
Afternoon 2	Future Work, Collaboration with other SDOs	Michael Lagally (Oracle)
	Wrapup and Next Steps	Michael Lagally (Oracle) + Sebastian Käbisich (Siemens)
	Closing remarks

Contact

Kazuyuki Ashimura

W3C Staff

Web of Things Team Contact

ashimura@w3.org

team-wot@w3.org